News of South Richmond

South Richmond Bureau, The Times-Dispatch, 1029 Hull Street, Phone Madison 125.

As an indication of the public interest in the movement for better schools and improvements in the present educational system one of the largest gatherings of citizens seen in years at the courthouse assembled yesterday morning to hear the deliberations of the Board of Supervisors of Chesterfield county. The fact that the County School Board, headed by Ben F. Owen, Jr., was to appear before the board contributed toward the importance of yesterday's meeting.

Although the general sentiment of the Chesterfield people seems in favor of school improvement, what opposition there is appears vigorous. Five hundred postal-card sent out by the head of the opposition party brought out every voter in the county who is not a believer in more taxation for better public schools, while the backers of the movement lined up in the same proportion. The enthusiasts seemed to carry the day, however, and at the request of the School Board the supervisors will hold a special meeting at the courthouse on July 10 for the purpose of voting on a special tax of 16 cents on $100, the proceeds to be used for improving the schools.

The Oak Grove special committee, armed with its petitions for a new school and more teachers, was given a hearing before the supervisors and seemed to win the members to its cause. The committee left the meeting filled with the hope that the supervisors will vote a tax of 16 cents on the $100 on July 10 for Oak Grove district. With the revenue which accrues the School Board plans to buy the old Drewry Mansion property, which can be purchased for the sum of $9,000.

From the standpoint of health and hygiene the Drewry Mansion can be converted into the most up-to-date school with the smallest cost. The building itself, erected many years ago at the cost of about $25,000, is as strong and substantial now as at the time of its erection. It contains eight twenty-five rooming, just the number required for a school of the size the Oak Grove residents

Beaumont and Three Other Contestants Arrive in Brussels.

Brussels, June 26.—The huge crowds which gathered at the aerodrome here today broke into volleys of cheers as Beaumont, winner of the fourth stage of the international circuit aviation race, arrived at 5:30 o'clock this evening. He was soon followed by Vedrine, Kimmerring and Gue.

All the aviators told of having been buffeted by violent winds and drenched by rain. They were presented to the King, who warmly congratulated them on their achievement. Verdine was the object of a special ovation, and was presented with a laurel wreath inscribed: "To the victor of the Paris-Madrid race."

Up to 9 o'clock to-night, when the official records were closed, seven of the contestants had reached here. Of the other contestants, Tabuteau wrecked his machine near Glize-Ryen, a short distance from the Belgian frontier; Vidart, Prevot and Train are stalled by bad weather at the same place, while Wynnmalen is at Brasschaet, about thirty-five miles from Brussels. All of the contestants expect to start again to-morrow morning.

FOURTH VICTIM DIES

Thomas Kerr Succumbs to Injuries Received in Bouthouse Fire.
Nantucket, Mass., June 26.—The fourth victim of the fire that destroyed the bouthouse here of William Barnes, Jr., the New York Republican leader, last Saturday, died to-night when Thomas Kerr, of New York, succumbed to his injuries.

Kerr was badly burned in an effort to rescue Holme Wilson, of New York, and Mildred De Haven, of Brooklyn, who were trapped by the flames and burned to death. Ulysses Pahad, the Barnes valet, who also tried to save the girls, was burned so badly that he died late Saturday night.

Robber Frightened Away.

The cries of three-year-old Dorris Toon prevented a complete rifling of the home of O. S. Toon at 2307 Semmes Avenue, Woodland Heights, early yesterday morning. Before the intruder was frightened off by the awakening of the infant he had collected two suits of clothes and $12 in cash in addition, he helped himself most bountifully to the pantry stores.

Although the child's cries awakened Mr. Toon he did not suspect anything except bad dreams in the little girl's mind, and it was only on arising yesterday morning that he learned of the nocturnal visitor. While the police have made every effort to capture the robber there seems little chance of ultimate success.

The Monday morning docket was somewhat smaller than usual yesterday in the Police Court, Part 2.

Jessie Whitree, colored, charged with being disorderly, was fined $2.50 and costs.

Harriet Anderson, white, drunk and vagrant, was given a term of ninety days on the roads.

Ash Farmer and Willie Hagan, drunk, were each fined $2.50 and costs.

Thomas Dickens, charged with attempting to beat his board bill, was dismissed upon settlement of the bill.

SMALL HATS COMING

But Salesmen Think Big Ones Are Not Gone Forever.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 26.—Small hats will be the rule in women's headgear for next winter, according to delegates to the Millinery Traveling Men's National Association's convention which opened here today.

The salesmen, however, apparently do not expect that the small hats will remain in vogue forever, as they adopted resolutions protesting against the proposal of railway companies to limit the size of trunks to forty-five inches in height.
